STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING DISCOVERY

21 1. A. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

22 As the parties have represented that discovery in this action is likely to 23 involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which 24 special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than 25 prosecuting this litigation may be warranted, this Court enters the following 26 Protective Order. This Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures 27 or responses to discovery. The protection it affords from public disclosure and use 28 extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential

1 treatment under the applicable legal principles. Further, as set forth in Section 12.3, 2 below, this Protective Order does not entitle the parties to file confidential 3 information under seal. Rather, when the parties seek permission from the court to 4 file material under seal, the parties must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5 and 5 with any pertinent orders of the assigned District Judge and Magistrate Judge.

6 B. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

7 In light of the nature of the claims and allegations in this case and the parties' 8 representations that discovery in this case will involve the production of confidential 9 records, and in order to expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt 10 resolution of disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately 11 protect information the parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the 12 parties are permitted reasonable necessary uses of such material in connection with 13 this action, to address their handling of such material at the end of the litigation, and 14 to serve the ends of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this 15 matter. The parties shall not designate any information/documents as confidential 16 without a good faith belief that such information/documents have been maintained 17 in a confidential, non-public manner, and that there is good cause or a compelling 18 reason why it should not be part of the public record of this case.

19 2. DEFINITIONS

20 2.1 Action: The instant action: Nautilus Insurance Company v
21 Dreamworks Construction, Inc. et. al., Case No. 2:23-cv-02707-SB-JC.

22 2.2 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the 23 designation of information or items under this Order.

24 2.3 "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: information (regardless of 25 how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for 26 protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), and as specified above in 27 the Good Cause Statement.

28 2.4 Counsel: Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as 1 their support staff).

2 2.5 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or 3 items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as 4 “CONFIDENTIAL.”

5 2.6 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless 6 of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, 7 among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or 8 generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

9 2.7 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter 10 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as 11 an expert witness or as a non-testifying consultant in this Action.

12 2.8 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this Action.
13 House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside 14 counsel.

15 2.9 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or 16 other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

17 2.10 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a 18 party to this Action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this Action and 19 have appeared in this Action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm 20 which has appeared on behalf of that party, and includes support staff.

21 2.11 Party: any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors, 22 employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their 23 support staffs).

24 2.12 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or 25 Discovery Material in this Action.

26 2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation 27 support services (e.g., deposition transcripts, photocopying, videotaping, translating, 28 preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

2.15 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any deposition testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material, other than during a court hearing or at trial. Any use of Protected Material during a court hearing or at trial shall be governed by the orders of the presiding judge. This Order does not govern the use of Protected Material during a court hearing or at trial.

4. DURATION

Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this Action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this Action, including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.
Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for

1 protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written 2 communications that qualify so that other portions of the material, documents, 3 items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 4 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

5 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations 6 that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper 7 purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber the case development process or to impose 8 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Designating 9 Party to sanctions. If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or 10 items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating 11 Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the inapplicable 12 designation.

13 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in 14 this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of Section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise 15 stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection 16 under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or 17 produced.

18 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

19 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic 20 documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions), that the Producing Party affix 21 at a minimum, the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" (hereinafter "CONFIDENTIAL 22 legend"), to each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions 23 of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must 24 clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the 25 margins).

26 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents available for inspection 27 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated 28 which documents it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and

1 before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be 2 deemed “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has identified the 3 documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which 4 documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before 5 producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the 6 “CONFIDENTIAL legend” to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a 7 portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing 8 Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 9 markings in the margins).

10 (b) for testimony given in depositions that the Designating Party identifies 11 on the record, before the close of the deposition as protected testimony.

12 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and 13 for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on 14 the exterior of the container or containers in which the information is stored the 15 legend “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information 16 warrants protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the 17 protected portion(s).

18 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 19 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive 20 the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material.
 21 Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable 22 efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this 23 Order.

24 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

25 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a 26 designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court’s 27 Scheduling Order.

28 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute

1 resolution process under Local Rule 37-1 et seq.

2       6.3 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on 3 the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper 4 purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other 5 parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating 6 Party has waived or withdrawn the confidentiality designation, all parties shall 7 continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is 8 entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the Court rules on the 9 challenge.

10       7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

11       7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 12 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this 13 Action only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this Action. Such 14 Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the 15 conditions described in this Order. When the Action has been terminated, a 16 Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of Section 13 below.

17       Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 18 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons 19 authorized under this Order.

20       7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless 21 otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a 22 Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 23 "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:

24       (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this Action, as 25 well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably 26 necessary to disclose the information for this Action;

27       (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of 28 the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action;

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(d) the court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters and their staff;

(f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action.

(g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

(h) during their depositions, witnesses, and attorneys for witnesses, in the Action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary provided: (1) the deposing party requests that the witness sign the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” form attached as Exhibit A hereto; and (2) they will not be permitted to keep any confidential information unless they sign the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” attached as Exhibit A, unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material may be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Protective Order;

(i) A Non-Party witness to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action.

(j) any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in settlement discussions;

(k) reinsurers for the plaintiff, an insurance company, or any state or other regulator of plaintiff.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation

1 that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this Action as 2 “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

3 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification 4 shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order unless prohibited by law;

5 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order 6 to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the 7 subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include 8 a copy of this Protective Order; and 9 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be 10 pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

11 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with 12 the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this 13 action as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the 14 subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s 15 permission, or unless otherwise required by the law or court order. The Designating 16 Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its 17 confidential material and nothing in these provisions should be construed as 18 authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action to disobey a lawful 19 directive from another court.

20 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE 21 PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

22 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a 23 Non-Party in this Action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information 24 produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the 25 remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be 26 construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

27 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 28 produce a Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is

1 subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's 2 confidential information, then the Party shall:

3 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party 4 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality 5 agreement with a Non-Party;

6 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Protective 7 Order in this Action, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific 8 description of the information requested; and 9 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the 10 Non-Party, if requested.

11 (c) If a Non-Party represented by counsel fails to commence the process 12 called for by Local Rules 45-1 and 37-1, et seq. within 14 days of receiving the 13 notice and accompanying information or fails contemporaneously to notify the 14 Receiving Party that it has done so, the Receiving Party may produce the Non-15 Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If an 16 unrepresented Non-Party fails to seek a protective order from this court within 14 17 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party 18 may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery 19 request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall 20 not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the 21 confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court 22 unless otherwise required by the law or court order. Absent a court order to the 23 contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in 24 this court of its Protected Material.

25 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

26 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 27 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 28 Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the parties may incorporate their agreement into this Protective Order.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. No Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

12.3 Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5 and with any pertinent orders of the assigned District Judge and Magistrate Judge. If a Party's request to file Protected Material under seal is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party

1 may file the information in the public record unless otherwise instructed by the 2 court.

3 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

4 13.1 After the final disposition of this Action, as defined in Section 4, within 5 60 days of a written request by the Designating Party, except for as provided in 13.2, 6 each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or 7 destroy such material. As used in this subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes 8 all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or 9 capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned 10 or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the 11 Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by 12 the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the 13 Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving 14 Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other 15 format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material.

16 13.2 Counsel of record for parties to the action are entitled to retain an 17 archival copy of all Confidential pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and 18 hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, 19 expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even 20 if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain 21 or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth 22 in Section 4.

23 13.3 Plaintiff, which is an insurance company and subject to state and other 24 regulations, is entitled to retain Protected Material as part of its files as required by 25 applicable insurance regulations.

14. ENFORCEMENT

14. Any violation of this Order may be punished by any and all appropriate measures including, without limitation, contempt proceedings and/or monetary sanctions.
